

Radiology Technologist III:

Performs a variety of imaging procedures. Is responsible for patient safety protocols. Functions as first line interface with patients in the successful accomplishment of their imaging needs. Licensed or Certified in three (3) or more modalities. The ability to comprehend and follow routine written or verbal instruction or directions. Acts as supervisor of Radiology in the absence of the Director of Radiology and is responsible for the departmental Performance Improvement program. Takes initiative and uses independent judgment while performing administrative and professional duties. Directs work assignments of the technical staff.

Graduate of a School of Radiological technology accredited by the Committee of Allied Health Education and Accreditation.

Current registration with the American Registry of Radiological Technologists, ARRT. Current certificate of Medical radiological Technology from the Texas Department of Health. Must know the duties and responsibilities of a radiographer and support personnel.