

Licensed Vocational Nurse

Assists the professional RN nursing staff in providing optimum patient care. Assist RN by collection of patient data for implementation and evaluation of each assigned patient. Under RN supervision gives direct and indirect patient care as assigned. Documents completely all-appropriate information in the Medical record. The ability to comprehend and follow routine written or verbal instruction or directions in English.

OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens I.

Graduate of an accredited school of Vocational Nursing.

Licensed Vocational Nurse currently licensed by the State of Texas.

One year of Licensed Vocational Nursing preferred. Current CPR certification. IV therapy course preferred.