

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH TECHNICIAN

To provide technical testing services in a professional and highly confidential manner for Occupational and Community Health Services and their commercial clients. The ability to comprehend and follow routine written or verbal instruction or directions. Certified or willing to become certified in occupational testing. OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens III.

High School diploma. No Licensure required. Certification or willing to become certified in all occupational testing required.