

Responsible for planning, directing and providing nutritional care to patients of Gonzales Healthcare Systems and all affiliates of Gonzales Healthcare Systems, including home health, licensed long term care facilities, and assures that quality nutritional care is provided to patients, staff and visitors.

Responsible for providing nutrition education and diet instructions to individuals or groups in the community on an outpatient basis.

Demonstrates active involvement in community nutrition education programs in a manner consistent with the marketing strategies of Gonzales Healthcare Systems..

Establishes policies, procedures and departmental objectives. Supervises departmental personnel and all functions including food service to patients, Gonzales Healthcare System staff members and the public and catering for meetings and other functions.

The ability to comprehend and follow routine written or verbal instruction or directions. OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens III.

Bachelors degree in Food and Nutrition or Dietetics.

Licensed Registered Dietitian in the state of Texas .

Current Registration with Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR).

Valid Texas Driver's License